

NAPPI uk Factsheet for: Dementia Awareness Training of Trainer Course.

The Dementia Awareness Training of Trainer Course.

There has never been a more important time for care staff to receive appropriate training to develop awareness of Dementia. Understanding how dementia can affect an individual's behaviour will better equip staff to manage the challenging behaviour that is often linked to an individual's cognitive decline.

A Dementia Awareness Trainer is able to deliver tailored sessions that address the specific challenges faced by an organisation, whether supporting the elderly or those with a learning disability.

Aim of this course:

Is to improve your training techniques and confidence when delivering interactive training to your staff. You will be taught the knowledge and presentation skills required in order to deliver a 3 hour long Dementia Awareness workshop.

Method of training:

A variety of presentation skills including demonstrations, discussions and group work. Performance objectives are established and checked after each module. Participant's performance is monitored and certificates issued that identify the modules successfully completed.

This course includes:

- Training materials for 20 participants (additional materials available to purchase).
- Access to the online trainer support system.
- Auditing and certification of the workshops you deliver.
- Your trainer certification lasts for 2 years (after which point you will need to re-certify).
- Telephone support.
