Mental Capacity Act & DoLS Training of Trainer Course

The Mental Capacity Act & DoLS Training of Trainer Course.

A MCA & DoLS Trainer is able to deliver tailored sessions that address the specific challenges faced by employees when supporting individuals who may lack capacity.

The training places a strong emphasis on person-centred approaches to support an individual to make their own decisions or when this is not possible, to actively involve them in the decision-making process. The training will enable employees to be more consistent when supporting the vulnerable people in their care.

Aim of this course:

Is to improve your training techniques and confidence when delivering interactive training to your staff. You will be taught the knowledge and presentation skills required in order to deliver a 3 hour long Mental Capacity Act & DoLS workshop.

Method of training:

A variety of presentation skills including demonstrations, discussions and group work. Performance objectives are established and checked after each module. Participant's performance is monitored and certificates issued that identify the modules successfully completed.

This course includes:

- Training materials for 20 participants (additional materials available to purchase).
- Access to the online trainer support system.
- Auditing and certification of the workshops you deliver.
- Your trainer certification lasts for 2 years (after which point you will need to re-certify).
- Telephone support.
