

The Safeguarding Adults Training of Trainer Course.

This one day course teaches the skills required to deliver in-house Safeguarding Adults workshops. Gain confidence and learn facilitation and assessments skills.

This course is designed for those responsible for the training and development of health and social care staff. It is suitable for those involved in providing, or managing, direct care to vulnerable adults whether in residential, domiciliary, or supported living settings. The ability to develop staff is just one of the essential skills of an effective manager; however, the ability to talk in public does not come naturally and many people find it a nerve racking experience. We can help you overcome this.

Aim of this course:

Is to improve your training techniques and confidence when delivering interactive training to your staff. You will be taught the knowledge and presentation skills required in order to deliver a 3 hour long Safeguarding Adults awareness workshop.

Method of training:

A variety of presentation skills including demonstrations, discussions and group work. Performance objectives are established and checked after each module. Participant's performance is monitored and certificates issued that identify the modules successfully completed.

This course includes:

- Training materials for 20 participants (additional materials available to purchase).
- Access to the online trainer support system.
- Auditing and certification of the workshops you deliver.
- Your trainer certification lasts for 2 years (after which point you will need to re-certify).
- Telephone support.
